GOSPODOV VNEBOHOD - Z vnebohodom se je Jezus vrnil k Očetu. Ali to današnjemu človeku sploh kaj pove? Ali mu ne pomeni samo ločitve? V tem duhu si vnebohod razlaga nekako takole: potem ko je Jezus opravil svojo nalogo, se je vrnil k Očetu in je zdaj daleč proč od problemov modernega sveta in človeka. V resnici je sporočilo praznika drugačno. Misel, da je Jezus na Božji desnici, razodeva, da se sedaj dejavno zavzema za nas pri Očetu in da se je njegova vloga v Cerkvi še bolj utrdila. Kaj je torej vnebohod? Preprosto rečeno: to je tudi za nas nov način življenja, ki nas čaka in ki ga imenujemo nebesa. Morda premalo govorimo o tem; morda o tem slišimo govoriti samo včasih, bolj na splošno. Pa vendar je to naša resničnost, je naše večno življenje. Ne gre za odtujitev, beg v oblake, temveč za resničnost, ki daje smisel življenju in pravo smer vsakdanjemu delu, ljubezni, trpljenju, vsemu človekovemu prizadevanju, starosti in smrti. Naša naloga je oznanjati vsem to veliko krščansko upanje. In to ni nemogoče, ker je Jezus obljubil, da "bo z nami vse dni do konca sveta".

ASCENSION OF THE LORD - Roman Catholic parishes in a number of countries that do not observe the feast as a public holiday have obtained permission from the Vatican to move observance of the Feast of the Ascension from the traditional Thursday to the following Sunday, the Sunday before Pentecost. We celebrate our Lord's Ascension, taking place forty days after his resurrection. We recount with joy the day Christ completed his earthly mission and returned to the Father to reign in majesty and to be the judge of the living and the dead. It seems we just began our Paschal celebrations and now this joyful liturgical season is drawing to a close. That is how life seems to go, cycle after cycle, what has been called an infinity of little hours. It is precisely there, in the midst of the mundane, that we are being invited to encounter the God who has not left us orphans, but lives among us and who loves us until the end of time. Christ completed the Father's work on earth as a mission of obedience to the will of God. Its purpose was and is to bring eternal life to every human being. We may ask: how do I feel about Christ's obedience unto death, how does it touch me, and what role do I play in the mystery being celebrated on Ascension of the Lord? What is being asked of me as a follower of Christ? Perhaps we may feel little or nothing of note to reply to these questions, but we must not think for a moment that the saving events of Christ's life, death, resurrection and ascension have no meaning in our lives. We are all united to Christ and one another in the great mystery of salvation in Jesus Christ. We have "put on Christ," Saint Paul tells us, by the fact of our baptism, so we cannot so easily walk away from the light and life being offered us in the Church.

WORLD COMMUNICATIONS DAY – MAY 17-

Today Catholics are invited to reflect upon the media of social communication (films, radio, television, newspapers, audiovisuals) and how these influence our lives. The media can promote values that lead to a more fully human society. The Church's ministry is twofold. The media can be used to help promote the Gospel. At the same time, as receivers of the materials presented by the media, the faithful have a duty to support and promote worthwhile presentations on media and reject those which promote values contrary to spiritual growth.
